How to make a claim

If you are reading this page, you may now need to make a claim. The first thing to remember is help is at hand! Professional claims teams are there to help you through the process as quickly and easily as possible.

Before you pick up the phone, there are a few things that you need to do first:

Contact the police

You should tell the police straight away if something is lost or if you suspect theft or malicious damage. They will give you an incident reference number, which your insurer may need.

Contact Ageas your home insurer to make a claim

If you are asked to fill out a claim form, you should complete this and send it back to Ageas along with anything else they have asked for, within 30 days of contacting them.

Things you should avoid doing

Rias aims to make things as easy for you as possible when you make a claim. To help your insurer act effectively on your behalf and to prevent problems later, there are certain actions you should avoid:

- Admitting or denying any responsibility for anything, as this may jeopardise your claim
- Negotiating or settling any claims made against you by anyone else, unless we write and tell you that this is all right. Let your insurer Ageas do the negotiations for you – that's what you pay them for!

We can negotiate, defend or settle any claims against you on your behalf. They may also take legal action in your name (against individuals or organisations) in order to get back any payment they have made under this policy. This may help you to protect your No Claims Discount if money can be reclaimed from the third party that caused the claim.

How your claim will be settled

We will settle your claim by either:

- Replacing, repairing or rebuilding items (depending on which will be most cost effective), or
- Paying you their cash equivalent, based on what it would cost us to replace the item(s).

We will decide which option is most appropriate. However, they will not pay more than the limit shown in the policy schedule/statement of fact or policy booklet.

If your property is only partly damaged, we will pay for it to be repaired as long as the repair is actually done. If you choose not to have the repair done (because you decide you want to replace this item with something else, for example), we will pay for one of the following, whichever is the lowest:

- The amount by which the property has gone down in value as a result of the damage, or
- The estimated cost of the repair.

Important note

It is extremely important to make sure you have insured all your buildings for the full rebuilding cost and your contents for the full amount that it would cost to replace them as new. If you have not, you will be under-insured and, if you need to make a claim, you may not receive the full value of the buildings or contents for which you are claiming.

For example, if you have a ring worth £4,000 and you have only insured it for £3,000, then it is only insured for 75% of its value. If you need to make a claim, then you may only receive 75% of the amount it is insured for – i.e. 75% of £3,000 = £2,250.

You are therefore required to take reasonable care to supply accurate information in relation to your buildings and contents. If you are in any doubt about any information provided, please contact Rias who will be happy to assist you.

Personal Legal protection, Home Protection cover and Excess Protection cover.

Please note – the process for claiming is different for:

- Personal Legal Protection
- Home Protection Cover
- Key Protection cover
- Excess Protection cover

If you wish to seek help or make a claim under either of these types of cover, please refer to the relevant sections of the policy booklet for more information.

How to use this policy booklet

Many people find it hard to work out whether they should claim under the buildings or contents part of their policy. The information on this page is designed to help you find the information you need quickly and easily.

Will you be claiming under buildings or contents insurance or both?

In the most general terms, if you were able to turn your house upside down and shake it, whatever fell out would, most probably, be contents. So, this would include all your personal belongings and furniture. What remained would be covered under buildings insurance. You could also think about the things you would be able to take with you if you moved house. Those things would be viewed as contents and those you would leave behind would most probably be covered by your buildings insurance.

For example:

- Built-in wardrobes would count as buildings, but free-standing wardrobes would be contents
- Built-in cookers would count as buildings, but free-standing cookers would be contents.

Clearly, there are exceptions to this general rule, but it should help you to get the right section of this policy booklet. Remember – help is only a phone call away, if you are not sure.

Working out if you are covered

As a useful tip, the best way to find the right section of your policy is to ask yourself:

'What caused the claim?'

For example, your water tank bursts and the water leaking from it damages your ceiling and also ruins some furniture. The cause of the claim is Water Leakage, so this is what you need to look for in the policy booklet.

'Am I claiming for buildings insurance or contents insurance or both?'

As the building itself is damaged (Ceiling) and contents of the house are affected (Furniture), then you will be making a claim under both buildings and contents insurance. So, you will need to look in both sections of the policy to see what is and is not covered.

'Am I covered?'

Finally, you need to read the relevant sections of the policy booklet to check what is and is not covered.

Important Policy Information

Is your property in a flood area?

If your policy ends without you arranging suitable cover with us or another provider, you will not be able to make a claim. Also, in some circumstances (for example, if you live in an area likely to flood), you may also find it difficult to arrange alternative cover and may not be able to start cover with us again. If you choose another insurer, make sure your insurance application is accepted before your current insurance ends so there are no breaks in your cover.

Your home insurance policy

Welcome to your Rias Home Insurance policy.

Your contract of insurance (your policy) is made up of this booklet, your policy schedule/statement of fact and any other information you provided. If you did not sign a proposal, it is based on the information shown on the 'confirmation of declaration questions' sent to you with this policy and any other information you provided.

You should read this policy booklet and your policy schedule/statement of fact together. Please check them carefully to make sure that they give you the cover you want. If you have been sent a 'confirmation of declaration questions' form, please check this too, to make sure the answers are right.

You must tell Rias as soon as possible about any change which may affect this insurance policy, in particular:

- Change of address
- Structural alterations to your home
- If you or your family intend to let or sub-let your home
- If you or your family intend to use your home for any reason other than private residential purposes
- If your home will be unoccupied
- If your property is no longer occupied solely by you or your family
- If you or your family have been declared bankrupt or been subject to bankruptcy proceedings or received a police caution for or been convicted of or charged with any offence other than driving offences.

If any of the above apply you may have no cover under the policy and you should contact Rias as soon as possible. Rias will then advise you of any changes to the terms and conditions of your policy.

Please note the above is not an exhaustive list.

Under the policy conditions, you must tell us about any changes.

On behalf of your insurer Ageas, Rias will update your policy schedule/statement of fact every time we agree to an alteration. Each time your policy is renewed or an alteration is made, you will receive a new policy schedule/statement of fact.

Ageas has agreed to insure you according to the terms and conditions contained in this policy booklet and the sections shown in the policy schedule/statement of fact for loss, damage, injury or liability which happens during the period of insurance.

Your policy schedule/statement of fact tells you which sections of this policy booklet apply.

For each type of cover outlined in this booklet, we will tell you what you are covered for, as well as what you are not covered for. There are also some general exclusions on page 18, which apply to all insurance policies.

You agree to pay the premium and keep to the conditions of the policy.

Words with special meanings

All through this policy booklet, there are certain words with special meanings and these are listed below.

High-risk items

The risk of potential theft of, or damage to, the following items is higher than normal, so they are treated differently: jewellery, precious stones, articles made from gold, silver and other precious metals, clocks, watches, furs, photographic equipment, business equipment, binoculars, telescopes, musical instruments, curios (small articles of curiosity or special interest, valued as a collector's item), pictures and other works of art, guns and collections of stamps, coins or medals. Pairs or sets of items are regarded as one item.

High-risk items maximum claim limit

The most we will pay for any one claim for high-risk items.
The amount varies depending on the number of bedrooms in your home and the contents sum insured you have selected unless a different amount is shown on the policy schedule/statement of fact.

No. of bedrooms	1	2	3	4	5
Max. claim	20%	20%	20%	30%	30%
	of the total contents sum insured limit			of the total contents sum insured limit

For example: You have selected the standard £50,000 sum insured for the contents of your 3 bedroom home. Your maximum claims limit for high-risk items will therefore be 20% of £50,000, which is £10,000.

The limit applies within (not on top of) the maximum claim limit. If the applicable bedroom limit is not sufficient to replace all your high-risk items, anything exceeding that amount must be specified separately on your policy schedule/statement of fact.

Home

The property described in the schedule/statement of fact, landlord's fixtures and fittings that you are responsible for and the property's garages and outbuildings at the same address, which you use only for domestic purposes.

Unless otherwise stated, the main building of your property must be made of brick, stone or concrete and with a slate, tile, metal, asphalt or concrete roof.

Incident

Any event that might lead to a claim.

Maximum claim limit

The most we will pay for any one claim under any section of this policy (or its extensions). This amount is shown in the policy schedule/statement of fact. If you have insured an item for a specific amount (for example, a ring insured for £5,000), that is the most that will be paid for that item. This is why it is important that you review the valuations on specified items regularly (every 2 years).

In addition, you should review the total amount you have insured your buildings and contents for each year at renewal.

Monthly premium	If you pay for your insurance monthly by direct debit, this is the premium you pay on an agreed date each month.
Money	Cash, cheques, postal and money orders, National Savings stamps and certificates, unused postage stamps, travellers' cheques, travel tickets, season tickets, luncheon vouchers and store vouchers. This does not include items held or used for business purposes.

Pedal cycle	Any pedal cycle (including electrically assisted pedal cycles that are not legally required to be registered, taxed or insured and cannot be propelled by the motor when travelling at more than 15.5mph).

Policy schedule/ statement of fact	The policy schedule/statement of fact is issued with each new insurance policy. It shows your name and address, the period of insurance, the sections of this policy booklet which apply, the premium you have to pay, the property which is insured and details of any extensions or endorsements.
Proposal	The proposal that you signed and any other information that you have given to Rias. If you did not sign a proposal, the 'confirmation of declaration questions' Rias sent to you with this policy, and any other information that you have provided. This includes information given on your behalf.

Policy excess

You pay the first £50 of all claims for every incident.

What is insured

This policy extension provides additional cover for your pedal cycles, over and above the protection provided by your standard contents insurance.

Accidental loss or damage

The most we will pay

The most we will pay for pedal cycles is the amount shown against each item in the policy schedule/statement of fact.

It is RECOMMENDED that you review the value of your pedal cycles at least every two years and advise Rias if this value changes so that your policy may be updated. If the value is not updated and you make a claim you may find that the amount you can claim for is not enough to replace or repair the item.

If the value of the items at the time of the loss or damage is more than the amount shown in the policy schedule/statement of fact, we will pay only part of the claim.

For example, if the sum insured is one third of the actual value, we will pay only one third of the cost of replacement or repair.

What is not insured

- Any motorised pedal cycles that can be propelled by the motor when travelling at more than 15.5mph

 - ii.) Keep us fully advised of all developments and provide such information as we may require.
 - iii.) Keep us regularly advised of advisors' costs incurred.
 - iv.) Advise us of any offers to settle and payments in to court. If against our advice such offers or payments are not accepted there shall be no further cover for advisors' costs unless we agree in our absolute discretion to allow the case to proceed.

- v.) Submit bills for assessment or certification by the appropriate body if requested by us.
- vi.) Attempt recovery of costs from third parties.
- vii.) Agree with us not to submit a bill for advisors' costs to the insurance providers until conclusion of the legal action.
- f) In the event of a dispute arising as to advisors' costs we may require you to change advisor.
- g) Insurance providers shall only be liable for costs for work expressly authorised by us in writing and undertaken while there are reasonable prospects of success.

- i) You are responsible for any advisors' costs if you withdraw from the legal action without our prior consent.
Any costs already paid under this insurance will be reimbursed by you.
- j) You must instruct the advisor to provide us with all information that we ask for and report to us as we direct at their own cost.

3. Proportionality

We will only pay Advisers' Costs that are proportionate to the amount of damages that you are claiming in the Legal Action. Advisers' Costs in excess of the amount that you are able to claim from your opponent will not be covered.

4. Disputes

Subject to your right to refer a complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service (see 'How to make a claim'), any dispute between you and us may, where the parties agree, be referred to an arbitrator who will be either a solicitor or a barrister. If the parties cannot agree on their choice of arbitrator the Law Society may be asked to make a nomination. The arbitration will be binding and carried out under the Arbitration Act. The costs of the arbitration will be at the discretion of the arbitrator.

5. Prospects of success

At any time we may form the view that you do not have a more than 50% chance of winning the case and achieving a positive outcome. If so, we may decline support or any further support. In forming this view we may consider

- a) The amount of money at stake.
- b) Whether a person without legal expenses insurance would wish to pursue or defend the matter.
- c) The prospects of being able to enforce a judgment.

- d) Whether your interests could be better achieved in another way.

9. Other Insurances

If any claim covered under this policy is also covered by another legal expenses policy, or would have been covered if this policy did not exist, we will only pay our share of the claim even if the other insurer refuses the claim.

10) Fraud

In the event of fraud, we:

- b) May recover any sums paid to you in respect of the fraudulent claim

Identity Theft

This service is provided by Arc Legal Assistance Ltd.

Lines are open 9am – 5pm Monday to Friday

What is identity theft?

Your identity and personal information are of value to criminals. They can take and use your personal details to open bank accounts, apply for credit cards, loans, state benefits, mortgages, passports and driving licences – all in your name. If your identity has been stolen, you may have difficulty accessing your own bank account and have to spend days sorting out finances and documents until the matter is resolved.

Identity theft is one of the UK's fastest growing types of crime with more than 100,000 people affected in the UK each year.

Rias has introduced a FREE service to help customers who become the victims of identity theft. Having chosen Rias for your home insurance policy, you automatically benefit from this extra assistance whilst your policy is in force.

Tell-tale signs of identity theft

- Bank statements or correspondence that does not arrive, or if you are receiving no post at all
- Bills, invoices or receipts addressed to you for goods and services you know that you haven't requested
- A refusal of an application for a credit card, mortgage or loan, despite having a good credit history

- Letters from solicitors or debt collectors for debts that aren't yours
- If you lose or have your passport or driving licence stolen, you may become a target.

Ways to reduce the risk of becoming a victim of identity theft

Prevention is always better than cure. By taking the following simple precautions, you can reduce your risk of identity theft significantly:

Keep documents safe and secure

- Use a lockable drawer or cabinet at home
- Consider storing valuable financial documents with your bank
- Carry the minimum number of documents with you and never leave them in your car.

Report lost or stolen personal documents immediately

- Your passport and driving licence are key proofs of your identity – and a criminal can use them.

Don't throw it away – shred it

- Destroy or shred any unwanted documents such as bills, receipts, credit or debit card slips, bank statements or even unwanted post in your name.

Look out for unusual activity on your bank or building society accounts

- Check your statements as soon as they arrive.

Check contacts are genuine

- Never reveal your personal account details by post, email or by phone without fully checking the contact.

Use the internet wisely

- Only buy online at reputable sites
- Be careful which sites you enter your personal details or card details on. Always ensure you are connected to a https: secure site.

Keep passwords secure

- Always remember that your bank will never ask you for a personal identification number (PIN) or for a whole security number or password.
- NEVER provide this information, regardless of how authentic the communication you receive seems to be. Criminals regularly try to obtain this information using emails that may look like they come from your bank – this is called 'phishing'.

Moving house

- When moving house, subscribe to the Royal Mail redirection service for at least a year.

Free advice available to all policyholders.

Sorting things out if you suspect you are a victim of identity theft

How our ID theft assistance service will help you get things sorted out

If you do become a victim of identity theft, assistance is at hand to help you sort things out by:

1. Providing you with your own case manager

As soon as you call, your own dedicated expert will be assigned to you and will help you establish whether or not your identity has been stolen and provide you with practical help and advice.

2. Putting in a request for your credit files

Your ID theft case manager will work with all three credit agencies (Experian, Equifax and TransUnion) to establish a complete overview of your personal credit history. They will then create and despatch the relevant documents and explanatory notes to you, so you can complete the process of clearing your name.

Please note – credit agencies charge £2 for each credit report.

3. Undertaking identity recovery and CIFAS protection

If your credit report does identify any credit agreements that you did not take out yourself, your case manager will work with you to correct and amend your credit file. If appropriate, protection registration with CIFAS (the UK's fraud prevention service) will be arranged, to help you prevent future ID theft.

4. Providing you with proof of identity

If a bank or any other company involved in the crime has any doubts that you were a victim of identity theft, they may require more proof. In this situation, your case manager will help by putting together all the evidence for you. This will include proof of identity and documentation that fully clears your name.

Section 9 – How to make a complaint

This section applies to ALL forms of insurance mentioned in this policy

Rias strives to provide the highest standard of service to you at all times. However, Rias recognises that things can go wrong occasionally and, when this happens, we are committed to sorting things out quickly.

If your complaint concerns our service at Rias

If you wish to make a complaint about the service provided by Rias (including information or documentation issued to you), please contact them as follows:

- In writing, quoting your reference number, to:
Customer Relations Manager
Deansleigh House, Deansleigh Road,
Bournemouth, Dorset BH7 7DU

By phone: 0345 045 0059

By email: customerrelations@rias.co.uk

Rias will try to resolve your complaint within three working days and issue you a summary resolution letter. If they are unable to resolve your complaint, they will be in contact with you within five working days of receiving your complaint to advise what they are doing to resolve the problem and the timeframe by which you can expect a final response.

If your complaint cannot be resolved

If you are not satisfied with either the summary resolution or final response from Rias, you have the right to refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service, free of charge, but you must do so within six months of the date of the final resolution letter. Referral to the Ombudsman does not affect your right to take legal action. You can contact them as follows:

In writing:

Financial Ombudsman Service
Exchange Tower
London
E14 9SR

Tel: 0800 023 4567

E-mail: complaint.info@financial-ombudsman.org.uk

Please note that if you do not refer your complaint within the six months, the Ombudsman will not have Rias' permission to consider your complaint and therefore will only be able to do so in very limited circumstances. For example, if it believes that the delay was as a result of exceptional circumstances.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)

Rias and Ageas are covered by the independent Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). You may be entitled to compensation from the scheme in the unlikely event we cannot meet our obligations to you. This depends on the type of insurance and circumstances of the claim. Further information about the compensation scheme arrangements is available from the FSCS (www.fscs.org.uk) or by writing to the FSCS at 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London EC3A 7QU.
